To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this letter to recommend Mahmudul Islam for future employment opportunities. I have had the pleasure of working with Mahmudul at Edison Industries Ltd. (Symphony Mobile Manufacturing) and can confidently say that he is an exceptional individual with many valuable skills and qualities.

Mahmudul has BSc. (Eng.) in Electronics & Communication Engineering(ECE) from Khulna University of Engineering & Technology (KUET). He is proficient in Hardware & Software testing, validating and have demonstrated excellent communication skills, both written and verbal.

During their time at Edison Industries Ltd. (Symphony Mobile Manufacturing), Mahmudul consistently demonstrated a high level of professionalism and dedication to their work. He has a strong work ethic, and able to manage time and priorities effectively. Mahmudul is also an excellent problem solver, and is able to work well under pressure.

I have been particularly impressed by Mahmudul's ability to take on challenging tasks and complete them on time and to a high standard. Mahmudul is a quick learner, and always willing to put in the extra effort to ensure that projects are completed successfully. He is also an excellent team player, and is able to collaborate effectively with colleagues to achieve shared goals.

Overall, I highly recommend Mahmudul for any future employment opportunities. He has the skills, experience, and character to excel in a variety of roles, and I have no doubt that he would make a valuable contribution to any team.

Sincerely,

27/03/23
